

It has long been a dream of mine to visit Spain. I am intrigued with the colour, culture, history and architecture of the place. Particularly, the 13thC palace-fortress Alhambra in Granada.

The idea of going with a small Heart Art group (15) is growing in my imagination and I wonder if you are interested in going with me in early May 2011. As part of this journey, I envisage an Art Workshop before the trip to prepare us for creating rich Visual Diaries while we are away, and afterwards to develop our diary material / photos into inspired original art works capturing the flavour of our adventure.

I think the trip would be 12 nights in the Andalusia region with time in Granada, the countryside and Cordoba. A gentle pace allowing for walking, photography, drawing and absorbing the sights and sounds.

Wonder at Alhambra and the gardens in Granada, explore the Old Towns in both cities and a local market, try the Tapas and the Tea shops, participate in a Middle eastern & Moorish cookery class, visit a Ceramic studio, photograph the Courtyards opened for the Patio Festival in Cordoba, see the mountains and Spring wildflowers and appreciate the Silver, Leatherwork and Flamenco dancing.

A current estimation of the cost is around $6500 including airfares.

To progress this idea, I need to know how many people might be interested.

So please ring me ASAP on 03 98761913.
